

Women's Empowerment & a S.M.A.R.T Implementation of the SDGs: Ensuring Corrupt-Free, Accountable Public Service Delivery to Grassroots Women/Girls

A parallel event hosted by:

You are warmly welcome to our parallel event!

Our CSW 60 event offers policy makers, government representatives, law enforcement, social enterprise and civil society a unique opportunity to share current Best Practice and address gaps and challenges.

Key themes

- The gendered reality of corruption*
- Anti-corruption measures and Aid delivery*
- Frontline experience & security measures*
- Collective action at every level*
- Gender-sensitive judicial & administrative reform*
- Increasing transparency & accountability*

We are delighted to present a distinguished panel of speakers

- Hon. Nana Oye Lithur, Minister for State for Gender, Children & Social Protection - Ghana
- Baroness Sandip Verma, Parliamentary Under-Secretary, Dept. for International Development (DFID UK)
- Holly Abbott, Young NAWO (National Alliance of Women's Organisations UK) representative
- Baroness Fiona Hodgson, CBE, Chair, Advisory Board of GAPS (Gender Action in Peace & Security)
- Dr Ana Lukatela, Protection Specialist, UN Women Palestine Country Office
- Margaret Shorter, President, International Association of Women Police (IAWP)

Moderator: Eleanor Bird: Patron, Vision Africa & member of IAWP
 Welcome By: Laura Haynes, Co-Chair, UN WOMEN NC UK

Empower Women and Girls! Empower Humanity! Picture It! #STOPcorruption

Wednesday 16 March 2016, 12.00 - 14.30
The Baha'i International Community - 866 United Nations Plaza, Suite 120, New York
10017-1822 (corner 1st Ave with 48th Street, New York)