

International Association of Women Police (IAWP)
Attention Jane Townsley, President

Dear Madame President:

Please accept this letter as my sincere thank you for the wonderful conference held recently in Lexington, Kentucky. I was the Civilian Achievement award winner, but this was my first contact with the International Association of Women Police.

I brought my mother along with me, and we had such a fabulous week – this was the best conference I have ever been to (and I have been to quite a few conferences over my 30+ year law enforcement career). The whole organizing committee, as well as all the volunteers, should be commended for a great job. I cannot imagine the logistics and coordination required in bringing together such a diverse group of women from all over the world!

It was a real honour for me to be in such esteemed company as the other award winners, as well as each and every one of the special women in attendance. The awards banquet was wonderful, and we were treated like royalty!

Again, thank you to all the members of the IAWP Board and organizing committee for choosing my nomination, and inviting me to be a part of the conference. It is an event I will remember fondly for the rest of my life, and hopefully I will be able to attend other IAWP conferences in the future.

Sincerely,

Nancy Speck
