

CYNTHIA BENTIL

Cynthia Bentil is a senior high court registrar at the Judicial Service of Ghana with over 25 years working experience. She is currently the President of the Judicial Service Ladies Association of Ghana. (JUSLAG)

She was the Focal Person on Gender for the Judicial Service and has attended a lot of courses relating to Gender issues both locally and Internationally. Due to her leadership role she some times represented the former Chief Justice of Ghana, Her Ladyship Justice Georgina Theodora Wood (Mrs.) at Gender Conference.

With her effort the Judicial Ladies Association became an Affiliate Member of the International Association of Women Police (IAWP).

She has also attend lot of IAWP conferences and that has sharpened her skills to do more advocacy to empower more women to be able to take up challenging leadership role in the service.

Through her instrumental effort to address the economic status of their female workers she and her executives of Juslag have been able to acquired over 200 acres of land for the female staff and some Judges. This has really brought joy to the women as a form of empowerment.

She has donated various food items and clothing to a number of Non-Governmental Organisations in Accra to support women and children in this pandemic era.

Cynthia, is now targeting the female youth within her community to empower them through formal and informal education.

Cynthia Bentil hold degree Business Administration.
