

Officer Dafina Xhaka, Kosovo Police

Officer Dafina Xhaka is a talented young woman who, in 2019 joined the Kosovo Police.

Dafina formally worked in journalism, and having studied the subject, her communication skills have helped her to build relationships with the local community where she works.

Dafina is a tireless police officer, she works in the patrol sector across all three shifts, working mainly in the field. It is not uncommon for her to face many risks on the ground, but with her professionalism she manages to resolve a variety of situations.

Dafina is now known for her extraordinary contribution during the time of the Pandemic, where she has always been faced with the immediate danger of the Pandemic, but that desire to serve has never overwhelmed her. Dafina is loved by everyone and she, in addition to service, knows how to give love to the community, which distinguishes her from others